- 地點：文化大學城區部數位演講廳(台北市延平南路127號4樓)
- Topics:

I. Coinsurance – The Other Reinsurance :

・Define coinsurance and its variants
・Compare and contrast coinsurance with more traditional risk-premium reinsurance ・Explore reasons why companies might consider coinsurance versus risk-premium reinsurance, such as:

  o Capacity
  o Level of comfort with product risks
  o Investment capabilities
  o Accounting and solvency considerations

・Discuss considerations when entering into a coinsurance transaction

主講人：美國再保險公司(RGA) Larry Carson資深副總裁

II. IAIS ComFrame and IASB Insurance Contracts :

ComFrame, the IAIS's initiative to supervise internationally active insurance groups. After an introduction of who the IAIS is, this presentation will address the purpose, the terms, and progress of this Common Framework for assessing the solvency of insurance groups. This will impact all local insurers that are affiliates of large international holding companies.

IASB's Insurance Contracts project. Sometime during the second quarter of 2013 the IASB will re-expose revisions to its 2010 Exposure Draft. This presentation will highlight a) a short review of the history of this project, b) recent decisions made, c) the objectives of the re-exposure, d) where the IASB and FASB differ, and e) impact on the industry and preparation steps.

主講人：北美精算學會清償委員會主席Mr. Thomas Herget
